Student Parent/Guardian:

Dear Parent/Guardian,

Thank you for the application to enroll with the Australian Islamic College of Sydney. Your application has been assessed and based on the information and documentation you have provided. We would like to offer you enrolment at the College as detailed below in this document. The information in this Letter of Offer summarises the grade of entry including start dates, duration, tuition fees and due dates.

Level/Year of Entry:
Course Duration:
Study Location:	Australian Islamic College of Sydney – On Campus
Start Date:
Finish Date:
Tuition fee:
Non-tuition fee:

As a parent/guardian you will be responsible for ensuring ongoing compliance with visa regulations and the Head of School will be closely monitoring the accommodation and welfare status of the student. If accommodation and welfare arrangements change, the College should be notified immediately.

International students must adhere to 80% course attendance to maintain their Student Visa status. AICS will regularly monitor attendance. It is a condition of enrolment for all international students that they meet this attendance requirement.

In order to secure your position you must read and understand this Agreement Contract document in full and then:

1. Sign that you agree with the Terms and Conditions of study as per this contract
2. Read and understand the current Overseas Student Policies and Procedures
3. Make your payment of the tuition and non-tuition fees as stated above

For inquiries please contact AICS: PHONE: (02) 99336900, EMAIL: communication@aics.nsw.edu.au

School Principal

Each parent/guardian signing below agrees to the following:

- I. The overseas student policies, procedures and any guidelines determined by the College.
- II. To pay all overseas student school fees, levies and charges in accordance with the fee policy incurred while my child is enrolled.
- III. All students (K to 12) are expected to arrive at the College by 8.25am, roll call begins at 8.30am. Students who arrive after 8.30am are issued with late notes by the College office. The student is expected to return such late notes signed by their parent/guardian to their teacher within 24 hours. Students who arrive late without a valid note from parents will receive a warning slip. Students who receive 2 subsequent warning slips will be given after school detention. Frequent breach of punctuality / attendance policies will require a parent/year advisor interview.
- IV. College uniform is purchased at Oz Fashions, 115-127 Parramatta Road, Granville, 02 9897 3121. I understand that all students must wear the proper uniform to school. Boys are expected to be neatly shaved and girls are not allowed to wear any jewelry and makeup.
- V. Any false, misleading or incomplete information on this form may entitle the College to cancel my child's enrolment.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

AICS defines a study period as one semester (2 terms and up to 20 weeks).

REVIEW OF TUITION FEES

AICS reserves the right to review its fees. If tuition fees are increased, you will be required to pay the new fees as they are introduced. If you defer your course, you will be required to pay the fees which apply at your new commencement date.

SCHOOL FEE PAYMENT

New Students must pay:

- Application fee – regardless of application outcome
- Fees specified in the AICS invoice by the due date.

Continuing Students must pay:

- Fees specified in the AICS invoice by the due date.

Definitions:

- a) Application Fee – fee payable on making application to the School for enrolment.
- b) Enrolment Confirmation Fee – fee payable to the School to confirm acceptance of offer of placement at the School.
- c) Course Monies – includes non-tuition and tuition Fees, Security Deposit and any other amount the student has to pay in order to undertake the course.
- d) The School – Australian Islamic College of Sydney.
- e) Security Deposit – deposit payable on confirmation of acceptance of an offer of placement at the School. The deposit is refundable on withdrawal from the School after deduction of any monies due to the School.

This refund policy applies to all Course Monies paid to the School. The School requires all Course Monies to be paid directly to the School and does not accept Course Monies from Education Agents.

Fees for services paid to the Education Agent by the student or their parent(s)/legal guardian are not refunded by the School.

The Application Fee is non-refundable.

Payment of Course Monies and Refunds:

- a) School Fees are payable one semester in advance.
- b) All fees must be paid in Australian dollars.
- c) If the student changes visa status (e.g. becomes a temporary or permanent resident) he/she will continue to pay full international student's fees for the duration of the year.
- d) Refunds will be reimbursed in Australian dollars and the payment sent to the applicant's home country address unless otherwise requested in writing.
- e) Refunds will be paid to the person(s) specified in the written agreement

All notification of withdrawal from a course, or applications for refunds, must be made in writing and submitted to the Principal. Such application must be made by the person(s) who has signed the agreement with the School, i.e. parent(s) or guardian(s). Applications will not be accepted from the Education Agent

Unsuccessful Enrolment/Visa Rejection

- a) The School will refund within 4 weeks all Course Monies paid where the student's application for enrolment is refused by the School except the non-refundable payment of application fee.
- b) If a student produces evidence of visa refusal by the Australian immigration authorities and fails to start the course, or withdraws from the course on or before the agreed start date, the school will refund (within 4 weeks of receiving a written claim from the student) the total amount of course fee received by the school before the student default day, minus the lesser of
 - 5% of the amount of course fees received
 - AUD $500
- c) The School will refund within 4 weeks, all Course Monies paid where the student produces evidence that the application made by the student for a student visa has been rejected by the Australian immigration authorities except for the non-refundable payment of application fee

Student Default

- a) Refunds for student default apply to School Fees only. Non-Tuition Fees (excluding School Fees) will be refunded on a pro rata basis proportional to the amount of time the student was studying in the course.
- b) If the student does not provide a written notice of withdrawal and does not start the course on the agreed starting date, the School will refund within 28 days from the paid Non-Tuition Fees.
- c) The School will refund within 28 days of the receipt of written notification of withdrawal by the student (or parent(s)/legal guardian(s), School Fees and Security Deposit paid by or on behalf of the student less the amounts to be retained as agreed and detailed below:
 - i. If a written notice is received up to 4 weeks prior to the commencement of the course, the school will be entitled to retain an administration fee ($500 including GST)
 - ii. If written notice is received less than 4 weeks prior to commencement of the course, 70% of the tuition fee will be refunded
 - iii. If written notice is received within six months of the commencement date of the student's course, only one term's (or ten weeks) tuition fee will be refunded from the annual tuition fee
 - iv. If written notice is received more than six months after the commencement date of the student's course no refund of tuition fees will be made.

d) No refund of School Fees will be made where a student's enrolment is cancelled for any of the following reasons:

- i. Failure to maintain satisfactory course progress (visa condition 8202)
- ii. Failure to maintain satisfactory attendance (visa condition 8202)
- iii. Failure to maintain approved welfare and accommodation arrangements (visa condition 8532) [if applicable]
- iv. Failure to pay Course Monies
- v. Any behaviours identified as resulting in enrolment cancellation in AICS's Code of Conduct:
 - a. repeated bullying and harassment
 - b. physical violence
 - c. stealing
 - d. dealing in illegal substances
 - e. possession and/or use of an illegal substance
 - f. drinking and/or possession of alcohol.

School Default

a. If for any reason the school is unable to offer a course on an agreed starting day for the course, and the student for some reason cannot be placed or refused placement in an alternative course arranged by the school, a full refund of any unspent prepaid tuition fees will be made within 14 days of the agreed course.

b. If for any reason the school is unable to continue offering a course after the student commences a course, and the student for any reason cannot be placed or refuses placement in an alternative course arranged by the school, a full refund of any unspent prepaid tuition fees paid to the school prior to default day.

c. In the event that the school is unable to fulfil its obligations of providing an agreeable alternative course for the student, or a refund, the student will receive advise to seek assistance from the Australian Government's Tuition Protection Service. (For more information on the TPS, please see: <http://tps.gov.au/Information/Students/How>)

This agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

Complaints & Appeals

The AICS has a formal procedure to deal with complaints or appeals, such as disputes related to assessment results or any aspect of your welfare and education. Full details of the procedures will be found in the Overseas Student Handbook.

If yes, please provide a brief outline of these incidents.

Personal information, consent, and declaration of accuracy

The personal information collected on this application is for purposes directly related to your child's education including processing this application.

Any information provided to the AICS will be used, disclosed and stored consistent with the NSW privacy laws.

Certain information is required by the Department to meet its duty of care and other legal obligations under public health, education and child protection legislation and for meeting data collection and reporting requirements under Commonwealth – State funding agreements which may involve evaluation and assessment of student outcomes.

Information may be disclosed to NSW State and Commonwealth government agencies and other organisations for the above purposes and as authorised or required by law.

Information will be stored on a secure electronic database. You may access or correct the information by contacting your child's school. If you have a concern or complaint about the information collected or how it has been used or disclosed, you should contact the school.

If you choose not to provide some requested information it may have a detrimental impact on your child's enrolment, resourcing of the school or meeting your child's educational needs.

Further information about the collection of information while your child is enrolled at a AICS, and how we protect your privacy, is available on the college's website.

Publishing student information

The school may publish information about your child for the purposes of sharing his/her experiences with other students, informing the school and broader community about school and student activities and recording student participation in noteworthy projects or community service.

This information may include your child's name, age, class and information collected at school such as photographs, sound and visual recordings of your child, your child's work and expressions of opinion such as in interactive media.

The communications in which your child's information may be published include but are not limited to:

1. Public website of the school, the intranet, blogs and wikis
2. Publications including the school newsletter, annual school magazine and school report, promotional material published in print and electronically including on the intranet, social media and website.
3. School social media accounts on networks, which may include school's YouTube, Facebook and Twitter pages.

Parents should be aware that when information is published on public websites and social media channels it can be linked to by third parties and may be discoverable online for a number of years, if not permanently. Search engines may also cache or retain copies of published information

Permission to publish

I have read the information about publishing student information (above) and

I give permission I do not give permission for the school to publish information about my child in publicly accessible communications. This permission remains effective until I advise otherwise.

Online services

The College provides students with filtered access to the Internet. Students also have access to a secure learning portal. After logging into their portal, students have access to a personalised email account and online applications. These resources enable students to collaborate with peers, publish online, and securely store their data for access within, or outside of, school.

When accessing some online services, data, including your child's name and files they have saved, are stored within a third party service provider in a location outside of the School's network. The college is working closely with our vendors to assess privacy impacts and data security controls.

I give permission I do not give permission

For my child to have access to online services provided by the school. This permission remains effective until I advise the school otherwise.

Consent

I have provided information about the learning and support needs, including health condition(s) and/or special need(s) and/or history relevant to a risk assessment, related to the student listed in Section A of this application form.

I consent to the school seeking information from previous schools, other NSW government departments, public hospitals, health professionals or other organisations that may also hold information related to this assessment for the student named on page 1.

I consent to the health professional(s) treating any medical or health condition identified in this application, to provide the school with information about any condition that has been identified in this application.
